Job Posting: Course Instructor

SDS256H1S Sexualities: Social Scientific Approaches

This course--the compliment to SDS255 (History and Perspectives on Sexuality)--will introduce students to a social sciences approach to the study of sexuality, particularly from an anthropological perspective, as a way of understanding sexual diversity across societies. Students will be exposed to a variety of methodologies, and learn to read those approaches critically, in order to examine the increasing visibility of sexual and gender diversity across cultures and in different social and institutional contexts. Candidates should familiarize themselves with the online syllabi for SDS 255 & 256 and propose some kind of outline or syllabus of their own.

Pre-requisite:	None
Estimated Course Enrollment:	156
Class Schedule:	Wednesday 3-6pm
Dates of Appointment:	January 1, 2018 –April 30, 2018
Salary:	$7,385.12 (vacation pay included)

Final availability of the position is contingent upon enrolment, budgetary consideration and the determination of appointments as governed by the collective agreement.

Qualifications: Minimum M.A., Ph.D. in progress preferred; experience teaching in a university environment; relevant background in sexuality studies.

Description of Duties: Duties include the design of a university credit course, including preparation and delivery of course content; development, administration and marking of assignments, tests and exams; calculation and submission of grades; holding regular office hours; supervising any TA's assigned to course.

Posting Date: April 24, 2017

Closing Date: May 19, 2017

All individuals interested in this position must submit a covering letter and CV to: Rebecca Thorpe, Sexual Diversity Studies, University College, 15 King's College Circle, Room 251, 15 King's College Circle, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 3H7. sexual.diversity@utoronto.ca. A valid email address is required.

This job is posted in accordance with the CUPE 3902 Unit 1 Collective Agreement. The Departmental Hiring Policy is available in the Department office and in the CUPE Local 3902 office. The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas. Note: Although a graduate student's preference as to the campus location of his/her TA appointment will be taken into account, both the initial TA appointment (or CI appointment) and the subsequent appointment obligation related to that appointment may be met through position(s) on any one of the three University of Toronto campuses (UTM, UTSC or St. George) in courses in the same discipline as the initial appointment. TAs will only be assigned to courses in fields in which they are or should be qualified to assist.
