

Sexual Diversity Studies
University of Toronto
Job Posting: Course Instructor

SDS378H1S Queer Youth Studies

Recent educational debates concerning sex education, queer visibility, and supports for queer and questioning students continue to produce mixed responses in schools and communities. Using academic research, personal essays, and visual and performing arts, this course will explore questions about queer youth identity and culture; the current state of sex and gender within school curricula; social justice pedagogies related to sexual and gender diversity; and other related concerns. Issues of race, ethnicity, class, and religion, and how these inform and impact queer youth, will also be considered through an intersectional and queer youth of colour framework.

Pre-requisite:	None
Estimated Course Enrollment:	45
Class Schedule:	Mondays 12-2pm
Dates of Appointment:	January 1, 2018 –April 30, 2018
Salary:	$7,385.12 (vacation pay included)

Final availability of the position is contingent upon enrolment, budgetary consideration and the determination of appointments as governed by the collective agreement.

Qualifications: Minimum M.A., Ph.D. in progress preferred; experience teaching in a university environment; relevant background in sexuality studies.

Description of Duties: Duties include the design of a university credit course, including preparation and delivery of course content; development, administration and marking of assignments, tests and exams; calculation and submission of grades; holding regular office hours; supervising any TA's assigned to course.

Posting Date: April 24, 2017

Closing Date: May 19, 2017

All individuals interested in this position must submit a covering letter and CV to: Rebecca Thorpe, Sexual Diversity Studies, University College, 15 King's College Circle, Room 251, 15 King's College Circle, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 3H7. sexual.diversity@utoronto.ca. A valid email address is required.

This job is posted in accordance with the CUPE 3902 Unit 1 Collective Agreement. The Departmental Hiring Policy is available in the Department office and in the CUPE Local 3902 office. The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, members of sexual minority groups, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas. Note: Although a graduate student's preference as to the campus location of his/her TA appointment will be taken into account, both the initial TA appointment (or CI appointment) and the subsequent appointment obligation related to that appointment may be met through position(s) on any one of the three University of Toronto campuses (UTM, UTSC or St. George) in courses in the same discipline as the initial appointment. TAs will only be assigned to courses in fields in which they are or should be qualified to assist.
