Background Information

Brian Pronger was a professor in the Kinesiology and Physical Education Department at the University of Toronto. He was known for his research on sport, the body, and physical fitness in relation to culture and sexuality. He wrote two books, Body Fascism: Salvation in the Technology of Physical Fitness, and The Arena of Masculinity: Sports, Homosexuality, and the Meaning of Sex. Pronger was responsible for obtaining funding and support for the Sexual Representation Collection, and his collection of VHS tapes comprised the start of the collection. The collection is mainly commercially produced gay porn VHS tapes, as well as some non commercial tapes.
